DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendments and accompanying remarks filed 2/4/04 have been entered and carefully considered. Applicant's amendment is found to overcome the 112 indefinite rejection of claims 8-9. Despite this advance, the amendments are not found to patentably distinguish the claims over the prior art and Applicant's arguments are not found persuasive of patentability for reasons set forth herein below. Page 2

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
3. Claims 1-5, 7-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Groitzsch et al (6448462B2).

Applicant argues that the fabric of Groitzsch does not possess applicant's claimed bending ratio because the instant invention is subjected to both a water jet treatment and an air jet treatment. However, it is the examiner's position that the fabric of Groitzsch would inherently have applicant's claimed property because Groitzsch discloses a treatment combining stretch and water jet impingement for the express purpose of reducing the stiffness of the fabric.

In the alternative, it would have been obvious to the skilled artisan to extend the treatment of Groitzsch to further reduce the stiffness of the fabric.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
